

PRESS RELEASE

On May 8 2019, the inaugural ceremony of the Research Center for Productivity (RCP) in Romania will take place in Aula Magna Conference room within the Bucharest University of Economic Studies (ASE).

A delegation from Korea will participate in the event as part of the In-depth study and policy seminar within the 2018/19 Knowledge Sharing Program for Romania developed by Korea Productivity Center (KPC) and accessed by the Ministry of Business Environment, Commerce and Entrepreneurship (MBECE).

Professor Nicolae Istudor, Rector of the Bucharest University of Economic Studies, Mr. Stefan Radu Oprea, Minister for Business Environment, Commerce and Entrepreneurship, and His Excellency Mr. Kim Eun-joong, Ambassador of the Republic of Korea to Bucharest will give the opening speeches.

On this occasion it will also be organized a workshop seminar with the participation of Romanian and Korean researchers in order to disseminate the results of the research and to exchange views on productivity.
